

We strive to be your educational resource
Training credit union staff, management and volunteers.

The Learning Center is committed to providing excellent educational choices throughout the year. We offer a wide variety of topics related to compliance, operations and leadership through our conferences, webinars, schools, QuickBites and TeleCourses.

The Credit Union Association of New Mexico (CUANM) offers a scholarship fund for New Mexico credit union staff, management and volunteers to attend Learning Center schools and conferences. For more information about scholarships available, contact Carey Shorty.

View the full Learning Center Calendar and register for upcoming classes.

If you'd like more information, please contact Amy Vigil, assistant vice president of Association Services/Compliance, at (505)298-9899 ext. 2222 or Amy@cuanm.org.